Potted Herb Gardens with Sue Goetz

Wednesday, June 22nd 3:30 – 5:30 pm
Members $25 Non-members $30

Learn how to create your own beautiful and bountiful potted herb garden. Sue Goetz, owner of Creative Gardener, discusses tips and tactics for planting, maintaining and designing potted herb gardens. Walk away with starter herbs to begin your own lemon-themed herb garden. For more information about Sue visit www.thecreativegardener.com.

Painting Garden Pottery

Wednesday, July 20th 3:30 – 5:30 pm
Members $25 Non-members $30

Join Rose Kiourkas of RAD Ceramics for this hands-on class that brings gardening and painting together. Your garden planter and supplies are included, just bring your creativity! Your hand-painted piece will be glazed, fired and ready for pick up at Lakewold's Tour Office on July 29th. This class is family friendly and all ages are welcome. RAD Ceramics is generously donating 15% of proceeds to the Vera Bradley Foundation's "Hope Grows Campaign" for breast cancer.

Ferns for the Northwest Shade Gardens

Wednesday, August 3rd 3:30 – 5:00 pm
Members $10 Non-members $15

Texture, texture, texture! Hardy Fern Foundation Board Member, Katie Burki, presents a lecture on garden ferns from A to Z that are proven to do well in the NW shade garden. Learn what ferns flourish in what locations, the basics of gardening and designing with these underutilized plants and how to add texture to your garden.

Designing with Bulbs

Saturday, September 17th 10:00 am – 12:00 pm
Members $35 Non-members $40

Get your hands dirty with this hands-on class about using bulbs to create a colorful garden. Learn about techniques for planning and planting in the landscape and containers, then create your own to take home. Instructor Sue Goetz will take you through the process of creating a bulb lasagna container. All of the supplies needed for the container will be provided, however you may want to bring your own pair of gardening gloves.

Lakewold Gardens

An inspirational garden experience

LAKEWOLD GARDENS calendar of events 2011

Discovery Walks

March – July 2:30 pm – 3:45 pm
Explore! Staff and volunteers will take visitors on a very personal tour through the gardens discussing seasonal changes, new additions and future plans. Discovery walks take place on the third Wednesday of each month beginning in March and ending in July. Standard Lakewold admission fees apply. Please meet at The Garden Shop at 2:30 pm. For more information please contact Amanda Wood at 253.584.4106, x108.

2011 Educational Opportunities March – October
Learn! We are offering a fantastic selection of garden education classes for 2011. Classes will take place at various times, March through October. Class topics include: Ferns for Northwest Shade Gardens, Garden Pottery, Garden Photography and others. Full descriptions and registration form will be available on the website and by email. For information on other classes contact Amanda Wood at  OUT WORKS. 253.584.4106, x108.

Birds of America Exhibit

April 28th – May 1st 10 am – 4 pm
Discover! The famous prints of the Birds of America series by John James Audubon are coming to Lakewold Gardens. On display will be 30 vintage prints from Toni and Jerry Gibbs' private Birds of America collection, including the Pileated Woodpecker, the Horned Owl and many of the ducks he painted. Vintage frames from the 1800's (Audubon's era) highlight all of the pieces and some are of elephant folio size. From this exhibit you will learn about the life and history of Audubon and how it relates to the development of our country in the early years, from 1785 - 1851. This display documents his accomplishments and his contribution to history through art. A special presentation by the Gibbs' on May 1st at 1:30 pm will kick-off our MayFest activities. Standard admission fees apply.

MAY 2011 Fest Celebrate! With the gardens in full bloom, Lakewold is planning a wonderful week with garden events, horticultural displays, membership specials, and our members-only plant bonus sale. Participants include: Ikebana International #147, Keith Phillips stonework display, Birds of America display and an art show by Lakewold Arts Commission. During this week the gardens and The Garden Shop will be open from 10 am – 4 pm. Standard admission fees apply.

Mother's Day Weekend

Due to limited seating the following events are by reservation only and must be pre-paid. Please contact Amanda Wood at 253.584.4106, ext 108 to make your reservation.

A Garden Tea with Lucy Hardiman presenting Bodacious Borders May 7th 1:30 pm
Pamper! Treat mom to a three-course tea at Lakewold along with a delightful presentation by Lucy Hardiman on Bodacious Borders. A longtime Northwest horticultural treasure and a nationally recognized garden designer, writer, teacher and speaker, Lucy's presentations are always an energetic collage of garden inspiration. We are embarking on a very special new event for mom and are very excited to present this to our garden lovers. Members $50 per person and non-members $57 per person.

Mother's Day Brunch May 8th 11 am
Honor! With beautiful cherry blossoms gracing the brick walk and colorful rhododendrons spread throughout, Lakewold is the perfect setting for celebrating such an extraordinary day. Attendees will enjoy a buffet-style catered brunch and a stroll through the gardens. Brunch prices are as follows: members $50 per person, non-members $57 per person, children 3-12 $20, under 3 free.

Mother's Day Weekend is catered by Occasions Catering. Full menus and information can be found on our website at www.lakewoldgardens.org.

Annual Rhodie Deadhead Work Party

June 11th 8:30 am – 12 pm
Join in! Lend a hand to the gardens as we prepare for summer with our annual mass-deadheading of the rhodies. This work party is a great way to get involved and meet other volunteers. Participants will meet at 8:30 am at the kitchen of The Wagner House for a complimentary breakfast. To participate contact Karen Robinson at 253.584.4106, x106.

Wednesdays in August 10 am – 8 pm
Be amazed! The Pacific NW has the most beautiful long summer evenings, creating a wonderful ambiance at the gardens. We want to share the summer nights experience with our visitors, which is why we extend our hours every Wednesday in August. Come to the gardens to relax after a long day – either way a summer night at Lakewold is unlike any other. Standard admission fees apply.

Picnic with Purpose

August 17th 5 pm – 7:30 pm
Connect! Open to new members of Lakewold, our annual open-house picnic gives staff and volunteers the opportunity to introduce our newest members to all that the garden has to offer. If you missed previous picnics or would enjoy welcoming our newest members into Lakewold's garden family, please email Stephanie at swalsh@lakewoldgardens.org.

Fuchsias Through the Years

September 9th – 11th 10 am – 4 pm
Visit! A partnership between Lakewold Gardens and Tahoma Fuchsia Society to raise awareness of fuchsias through a historically-themed public display, this show is the perfect end to summer. Fuchsia society members from around the region will be on hand to answer questions, along with presentations to be held each day at 1 pm. Standard admission fees apply. For more information contact Amanda Wood at 253.584.4106, x108.

"Enriching Our Lives in the Garden" with Erica Glasener

October 1st 11 am or 3 pm presentations
Engage! Erica Glasener, horticulturist, author, lecturer and award winning host of HGTV's A Gardener's Diary will be joining us as we partner with NW Perennial Alliance (NPA) and the Interlaaken Garden Club for a very special day. Presentations will be held at 11 am and 3 pm. Tickets go on sale on March 1st and will be $20-$40. Event is open to members of Lakewold, NPA, and/or garden clubs within the Capital District. To ensure notification of ticket availability, be sure to sign up for our e-newsletter at the bottom of our web home page at www.lakewoldgardens.org. Additional information and order form to follow in our next newsletter.

Beautiful Tables Showcase

Celebrating the art of entertaining.
November 3rd – 6th 10 am – 4 pm
Get inspired! Our Beautiful Tables Showcase is the perfect opportunity to see the colorful fall foliage of the gardens and kick-off the holiday season. This is a fabulous time to visit the Wagner House when it is decked out in over 25 themed "beautiful" table settings. This event inspires visitors with creative ideas to continue the tradition of entertaining at home. For more information, contact Irene Russo at 253.584.4106, x109.
